

Book Club Discussion Questions
The Doctor's Wife
By Daniel Hurst

1. The Doctor's Wife explores the theme of trust within a marriage. How does the author depict the erosion of trust between the main characters, and what impact does it have on the story? Are there instances where trust is broken but later rebuilt?
2. Discuss the portrayal of secrets and deception in the novel. How do the characters' hidden agendas and lies drive the plot forward? Were you surprised by any of the revelations?
3. The protagonist, Sarah, undergoes a transformation throughout the story. How does her character evolve, and what factors contribute to her growth? Did you find her relatable or sympathetic?
4. The book delves into the complexities of marriage and the facade of perfection. How does the author challenge the idea of a picture-perfect relationship? What does the story reveal about the darker side of marriages and the secrets people keep?
5. Examine the role of secondary characters in The Doctor's Wife. How do they impact the protagonist's journey and the overall narrative? Which characters stood out to you, and why?
6. Discuss the author's use of suspense and pacing. How did the tension build throughout the book, and were there specific moments that had you on the edge of your seat? Did the pacing effectively enhance your reading experience?
7. The Doctor's Wife explores themes of obsession and the lengths people will go to protect their desires. How are these themes represented in the story? Did any characters' obsessions surprise or shock you?
8. The ending of the novel leaves certain questions unanswered. What are your interpretations of the ambiguous elements? Did you find the conclusion satisfying, or were you left with lingering questions?

Discussion questions by PrincetonBookReview.com
(Feel free to use with attribution)