

Fifty Shades Darker — Discussion Questions

By E.L. James • Questions by PBR

- 1) How did "Fifty Shades Darker" measure up to the first book? Did it meet your expectations?
- 2) What is your favorite Christianism? Such as lip biting, twitchy palm, favorite phrase etc.?
- 3) Do you find Christian attractive? Why or why not? Do you think fifty shades is an accurate description for him?
- 4) How do you feel about Christian's control issues? What affect do you think this has on a young woman Ana's age? Do you feel she's ready for such a big commitment?
- 5) Both characters seem to be flawed in some way. What needs do you think Christian and Ana fill for each other? How realistic do you feel the flaws were?
- 6) As Christian and Ana grow, where do you see the relationship going? How much of the relationship do you feel is based on sex?
- 7) Ana mentioned Christian doesn't have many friends, how do you think this affects the intensity of their relationship. As they venture into the outside world as a couple, how will it affect them?
- 8) Christian seems to elude such a strong exterior. Were you surprised by his self -doubt? How common a feeling amongst powerful men do you think this is? What about people in general?
- 9) A large portion of this book deals with BDSM. Did this change your prospective on that type sex in any way? Have you re-examined your own sex life?
- 10) The book revolves around a very wealthy lifestyle. How do you think this influenced the attraction between Christian and Ana? Does Christian extreme wealth make him more attractive?
- 11) Did the ending leave you wanting more of the Greys? Why or why not?